IX International Conference on Mathematical Problems of Mechanics of Nonhomogeneous Structures

September 15 – 19, 2014

L'viv, Ukraine

Second Announcement

The Institute for Applied Problems of Mechanics and Mathematics of NASU and Ivan Franko National University of L'viv organize

IX International Conference on Mathematical Problems of Mechanics of Nonhomogeneous Structures

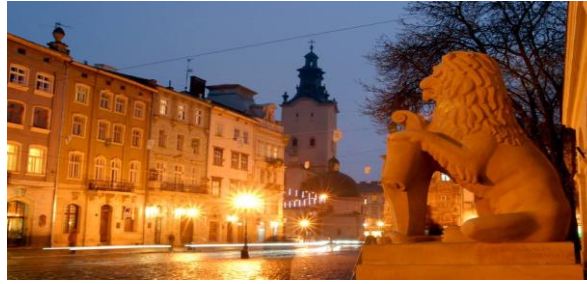

September 15 – 19, 2014

Scientific Program

The Conference will comprise plenary lectures, oral presentations, and poster sessions. It covers a wide spectrum of subjects related to the following topics:

- 1. Mathematical Modeling in Mechanics of Deformable Solids.
- 2. Mathematical Methods of Mechanics and Thermomechanics.
- 3. Mechanics of Nonhomogeneous Solids and Nanomechanics.
- 4. Mechanics of Contact Interaction, Solids with Cracks and Thin Inclusions.
- 5. Dynamic Problems of Mechanics of Nonhomogeneous Structures.
- 6. Optimization and Design of Structure Elements and Biomechanic Systems.

Official Languages of the Conference will be Ukrainian, Russian and English.

The organizers offer accommodation in the hotels, which are recommended for convenience of the participants. The proposed hotels are:

“Het'man”: <http://www.hetman.lviv.ua>,

“Suputnyk”: <http://www.suputnyk.com>,
